

Insurance—Providing Security for your Business

Insurance is about protection—and properly managing your business risks. The Buckner Company's front-line underwriting and active risk management techniques prevent losses and add to our unique capacity to provide insurance policies that protect your bottom line. In fact, with more than 70 years of experience in business insurance and hundreds more in combined agent experience throughout our company, our agents' in-depth knowledge of the business operating model, cash flow management, operations, risk mitigation, insurance, and surety all add up to security for your business, now and in the future.

Long-Term Service from Knowledgeable Advisors

The Buckner Company doesn't just provide insurance coverage for you and your company. We're in it for the long-term; that is, we offer risk management services that ultimately help you meet and exceed the goals you have for your business. We improve your financial stability by using our expertise to find gaps in your coverage, completing comprehensive risk analyses of all aspects of your business, and keeping in close contact with you as your business expands, grows, and prospers. In addition, we offer:

- » Claims history analysis to identify frequency and severity trends
- » Business risk inventory to identify external and internal risks
- » Explanations of the brokerage service cycle
- » Certificate of Insurance holder analysis to identify hidden exposures
- » Review of brokerage agreement to assess liability
- » In-house claims liaison for prompt reporting and effective claim management
